As clichéd as it may sound, it cannot be denied that Cricket was, is and will remain a religion in India, the numerous controversies surrounding the game -- from match-fixing to ball-tampering -- notwithstanding. At the same time, cricket is also a great teacher. It gives us hope, inspiration as well as warnings. Tales of cricketers rising to stardom having braved unimaginable odds are innumerable. On the flip side, there have also been case studies of players losing it all after reaching the top.

In this book though, we will focus on the positive side of the gentleman's game, and tell you about 10 stories of 10 great cricketers whose career ups and downs not only make for interesting reading but also teach us a lot about life in general and how to cope with challenges.
