The fresh and clean air of such Highland regions like Da Lat of Vietnam is in sharp contrast to the busy cities and their traffic.

Da Lat (a tourist city of Vietnam) offers the great natural environment in the surrounding areas, brilliant cuisine using the fruit and vegetables grown in this fertile region as well as a flavour of history and religion.

If you are active then you will love the areas around Da Lat. You are already at altitude and can walk even higher. There are some great waterfalls with Pongour one of the largest in the whole of Vietnam.

You are feeling especially energetic, why not climb the three peaks of Lang Biang Mountain from which you will get great views of the surrounding districts. The highest point is over 2,150 metres above sea level. There is an old radar station at 1,950 metres and you can go there by jeep if you want the views without the energy to walk there.

There are many good things of Da Lat you can discover with photo... try this guide if you are in the process of searching the natural and peaceful destination for your family vacation.
