The couple encounters some hard times--with missing friends and family, dealing with the noisy neighbors, not having access to good Mexican food, as well as just getting accustomed to the way things work down under--mixed with some unforgettable experiences like being a party of the Olympics, living on the Sydney harbor, exploring the Australian countryside and meeting wonderful people along the way. Part love story, part travel guide, Six Seasons Down Under will have you immersed in the trials and tribulations of new love and inspire you to get off the couch and have an adventure of your own.
