Considering a move? This easy-to-use guide helps you make the best choice for you, whatever stage you are in. Should you stay put? Would a few inexpensive renovations make your home the home of a lifetime? If you need a little help at home, where can you find it? Or should you move? And if so, where? And how to pay for it all?

Topics covered include:

- Fitting your home to your needs
- Downsizing to rental apartments, condos, and coops
- Choosing independent living and active adult communities
- Finding quality assisted living and memory care
- Getting the best nursing care
- Buying second homes
- Deciding whether timeshares are worth it
- Moving abroad

The authors, experts in the field who also have a broad range of personal experience, provide checklists in each chapter to help you discern your next steps and walk you gently through the process.
