YOU CAN ACCOMPLISH THAT VISION OF YOURS IRRESPECTIVE OF DIFFICULTIES AROUND YOU!

The world is full of challenges. To deal with these challenges, God in creation, put potentialities, gifts, talents etc. inside every one that is born on earth. Therefore, it is right for us to say that for everyone under the sun, there is a clear cut out assignment from God. If a man does not discover his own peculiar and particular assignment, he will go through life without making the expected impact on our world. The already existing challenge for which he was born will remain after his departure and the people will continue to suffer. That is what this Book is about; stirring you up to discover your own assignment and to accomplish it.

What are these potentials about? Your Potential is your latent ability. It refers to what you are capable of. It is your unused ability, unmanifested capability, dormant gift; it is what you can do that you haven't yet done... etc.

It is when you discover your assignment and decide to pursue it that you are ready for impact. To pursue whatever assignment you have in life, you must sit down and articulate how to go about it. The book makes it clear to the reader to bear in mind that your vision is not for everybody; you must discover your target audience. Your ability to articulate this assignment on paper clearly and package it to your discovered target audience will distinguish you in life. To achieve this, you must be focused and stay away from distractions.

This book encourages you to discover your vision early in life and then begin to work on being self-reliant. If you do this, you will destroy the culture of begging and depending on other people early in life. It is important that you discover your vision because many are looking but not everyone is seeing! Those who see will always lead those who don't! This is the reason you must endeavor to see and to see well.

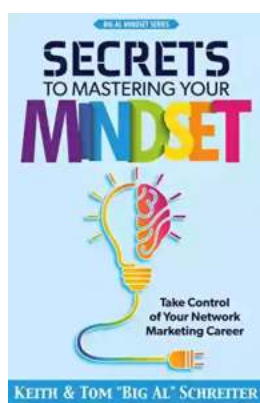

You must be careful with your life so as not to make the mistakes of other people. To actualize your vision, you have several things to do. Some of what you must do include that: You must develop your potentials. Your potential is your latent ability. You must be careful of your relationships and the type of friends you keep.

You must set your goals on a priority or preference scale while you must plan on how these will be accomplished and ultimately lead to vision actualization.

The book tells with illustrations, stories of young people who missed it in life and those who also won despite their challenges. It encourages the reader to see opportunities in every situation rather than seeing problems and obstacles; to be focused, to associate and relate with people who will stir up your potentialities and to read good books that will sharpen your brain and mind, challenging you to accomplish more than you imagine you can do. This book encourages and shows you how to go about these.

The book further encourages readers on the need for proper documentation, running the vision in obedience, avoiding vision killers and embracing vision helpers.

Lastly, to be able to actualize vision; the book encourages the reader to get a mentor, learn under somebody where you will learn the realities of life and gain experience. You are encouraged not to try to gain knowledge through your personal experience as some have said that experience is the best teacher but rather to gain knowledge from the experience of others. The book does not conclude without illustrations as it tell stories and with Biblical examples also of people who were trained under others and how they fulfilled their various visions in life.
