Azalea is a normal girl who stumbles on a secret. A special bird called the sharing bird visits her and sends her on exciting adventures all over the world!

Join Azalea in her first adventure as the sharing bird sends her to China. There she meets up with a friend, and they get to explore and visit many places in China. To find what they are looking for, they must figure out the clues the sharing bird gives them. Azalea has fun learning more about the history and culture of China by visiting panda bears, seeing the Great Wall of China, and floating down the Li River. When Azalea can't seem to figure out the next clue and she is faced with being caught by a security guard, she learns that perseverance and kindness are the real answers to the clues the sharing bird is giving them.
