The Magic of Chefchaouen: Shades of Blue

One of the most striking aspects of Morocco is the picturesque town of Chefchaouen, nestled in the Rif Mountains. Known as the "Blue Pearl," Chefchaouen is a photographer's dream. Every corner you turn is adorned with beautiful blue walls that seem to dance with the sunlight. Anna Mandus has perfectly captured the magic of this place, with her photographs immersing you in a sea of soothing blue hues. Each image showcases the intricate details of the architecture and the peaceful ambiance this town exudes.

The Vibrant Souks of Marrakech: Colors of the Medina

The bustling city of Marrakech is another destination that offers a riot of colors. The lively souks, or markets, are a sensory overload with their vividly painted ceramics, aromatic spices, and vibrant textiles. Anna Mandus' photographs capture the essence of the Medina, the old quarter of Marrakech, where traditional craftsmanship thrives. Each image showcases the artisans at work, surrounded by an explosion of colors that will leave you inspired.

The Unforgettable Sahara Desert: Golden Sands and Starry Nights

No visit to Morocco is complete without experiencing the vast expanse of the Sahara Desert. Anna Mandus' photographs transport you to this otherworldly landscape, where golden sand dunes extend as far as the eye can see. Her images capture the warm hues of the desert at sunrise and sunset, as well as the sparkling night sky, adorned with countless shining stars. The beauty and serenity of the Sahara come alive through Anna's lens.

Beyond the Colors: Immerse Yourself in Moroccan Culture

While Anna Mandus' photographs beautifully capture the vibrant colors of Morocco, there is so much more to explore in this diverse country. From the ancient city of Fes with its winding streets and bustling markets, to the coastal city of Essaouira with its pristine beaches and vibrant art scene, Morocco offers an abundance of experiences that will leave you captivated.

Whether you are sipping traditional mint tea in a local café, browsing through a Moroccan rug market, or enjoying a camel ride through the desert, Morocco will undoubtedly leave a lasting impression. It is a country that ignites the senses, and Anna Mandus' captivating photography beautifully captures the spirit and essence of this enchanting destination.

Anna Mandus' photographs of Morocco showcase the vibrant colors that make this country so unique. From the blue streets of Chefchaouen to the bustling souks of Marrakech and the golden sands of the Sahara Desert, each image transports you to a world of beauty and wonder. If you have ever dreamed of visiting Morocco, let Anna Mandus' photographs ignite your wanderlust and inspire you to embark on a colorful adventure through this captivating land.

Mead-Hill is pleased to publish yet another in its series of Zhou Chunlai's always exquisitely thoughtful photographic essays. This time Dr. Zhou takes us for an inspired visit to one of the world's most exotic destinations: Morocco!

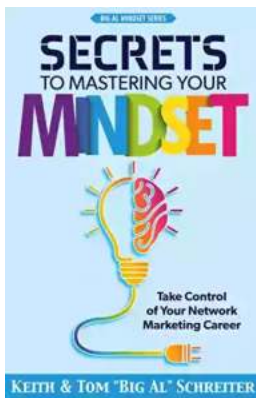

Along the way, we see things large – architecture, deserts, back alleys, landscapes, art, monuments, rivers - and more than anything: stunning and intricate detailing to be found in religious and secular buildings. Moreover, we meet a tea party of unlikely characters in the medina!

Each of the book's sections has a story, and each photo has a tale.

Readers will come away with a distinct sense of Morocco, and why it is host to world heritage destinations. Moreover, an accurate look at how the country unfolds to the traveler will greet every visitor spending time with this magical book, the most poetic in the series thus far.

As said in the past of each of Zhou Chunlai's books - it is as educational as it is entertaining.
