When I left, alone, for an attempt to ride a bicycle from Mumbai to Kanyakumari, I was unsure of what the journey would offer. My only acquaintance along the stretch of 1700 km was the National Highway NH66 that became a game changer for me. With the steepest climbs en route to the virgin beaches of Kerala, Inhaling The Roads is the authentic reflection of the daily notes jotted down by me.

The distinctive character of the diary is the real insight of not only the physical journey along the coastal route in India but also of an invincible insight that developed deep within me. Each pedal pushed me ahead as well as probed deep within my feelings until the end.
