Author Jim Wagner divulges his real life story on how he lost almost everything in life at age 37 yet rallied and recovered through perseverance, belief and determination. His internal resolve provided clarity that life had more meaning and significance.

Wagner began to dig out of his own mid life crisis to find his real passion and purpose in life; mentor, teach, support and advise. This motivational book talks about Wagner starting over in life and sharing his drive and passion for the game of baseball to those who crave to play the game. This story illustrates how his path in life allowed him to find his motivation to teach baseball players how to achieve their own goals and dreams in life, both on and off the ball field. This is his small contribution toward changing the world.....one pitch at a time!
