Assisted by angels and heaven, James escapes annihilation at the hand of his father and flees the war torn American South for Paris, France, where he finds refuge with his cousins Emmanuel and Jonathan. Yet, Mammon the Devil pursues him, destroying the new life he has created. Clawing his way out of the madness of Hell, the memory of an ancient love compels James to continue on in spite of Satan ploys. He returns to America at war's end, finding himself faced with the true love he has dreamed of, Lela. Nevertheless, the devil is busy. Mammon executes his greatest plot to destroy Lela's and James' love forever, jeopardizing the lineage and birth of the End Time King, Le Baton.
