It's funny. How can science explain the love chemistry between a gladiator bull and a slave cow as they skyrocketed to the air to escape their cruel fate in a farm? CHHHH! The cow and the bull found a new field where they built their home made from daub. They got married, witnessed by the Memversheep. The cow was named as Mothersheep. The bull was named as Hardsheep. In four years, they had four calves. Because Hardsheep has to go to work, Mothersheep was left to take good care of the calves.

“I'm not just a cows-wife.

I'm the mom-nager of the cows.

I shall teach you good moo-ners and right cow-nduct!”

Meet the Memversheep:

Mothersheep
