Two Paths Converge in a Serendipitous Encounter

It was a cool autumn evening when fate brought Wen and Jasmine together in the bustling streets of Myeongdong, Seoul's famous shopping district. Lost in the crowds, Jasmine stumbled upon Wen's impromptu street exhibition, where his photographs depicted the vibrancy and soul of Seoul. Intrigued, Jasmine approached the display, catching Wen's eye with her infectious smile.

As they exchanged an exchange of friendly banter, their shared passion for the city became evident. Their conversation flowed effortlessly as they discussed their favorite hidden gems in Seoul, the quirky cafes, and the secret spots offering breathtaking vistas of the Han River. Frequent visits, late-night video calls, and the exchange of hand-written letters helped bridge the physical gap, cementing their bond even further. Their commitment to making it work set an example for lovebirds facing similar struggles.
