Paige is Mitcham College's Silver Spoon; she can have any guy she wants. Or can she? When her friends bet she can't get a bad boy to fall for her, she agrees to the wager. Enter Bash Baker; Mitcham College's cherry popper. He's the most egotistical, stereotypical jerk in the whole school. Either Bash's fragile male ego is popped by the formal, or Paige has to give Mia's nerdy cousin his first French kiss.

Bash is Mitcham College's Cherry Popper; he's popped more cherries than Casanova in all of Venice*. But there's one cherry his mates bet he'll never get. Enter Paige Nicholls; the school's 'it' girl. Never one to shy away from a bet, Bash agrees to his mate's wager. Either Paige's cherry is popped by the formal, or Bash gives up his title to the nerdy band geek in the year below them.

It's War of the Romance as Paige and Bash try to seduce the other one without falling for the ruse themselves. Usual tactics don't seem to be working, so the two of them might need to switch things up. Otherwise they might find they're the one who's popped.
