Understanding Officer Candidate Tests

Officer Candidate Tests (OCTs) are a series of exams designed to assess the aptitude of candidates aspiring to become officers in the military. These tests evaluate various aspects, including but not limited to cognitive abilities, leadership potential, problem-solving skills, and physical fitness. The tests vary depending on the specific military branch you wish to join, such as the Army, Navy, Air Force, or Marines.
