Amy wrote a love letter... a note to the love of her life.

Only Molly never read it. Even if she'd been alive when it was written, failing eyesight would've prevented her from making out the words.

Besides which, she was a cat. And cats can't read.

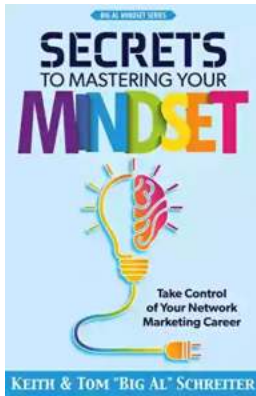

No ordinary feline, Molly lived a life full of challenge and adventure, determined not to let gradual blindness hold her back.

This is that letter and - against all the odds - Molly's long-lost memoirs....

Soulcat is a delightful furrytail of a unique friendship, filled with amusing anecdotes and touching moments. The first half is Molly's story told from the author's perspective, including a glimpse into the life of a touring theatrical stage manager. Each chapter is punctuated with a photo of Molly and an apt cat quote.

Part 2 is life through Molly's fading eyes, told in her own words (translated into English). Beautifully illustrated by Ellypop Illustration.
