This book tells the story of the author's years working on the tech crew of Memorial Hall on the Campus of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. It tells the story of the concerts, shows, and ballets, the backstage, the crew, and of Jubilee, the annual spring outdoor music festival. It recounts the history of Memorial Hall, and the previous convocation halls on campus, and of life working backstage. It includes stories of meeting and working with major performers, and of what working in a university performance hall was like.
