Book 4 of The Jordinia Saga

The next generation. A new adventure...

Over three decades have passed since the Ducelles reclaimed the Jordinian empire. When the Emperor acquires an uncharted archipelago in the North Sea, he enlists his two underachieving nephews to spearhead the expedition to explore them.

Reclusive Ludwig has his violin and no desire to travel. His charismatic brother, Drew, is seduced by the grandeur of making history - and money. Desperate to hide a secret scandal of her own, their sister, Johanna, insists upon accompanying them. With their royal entourage - including Captain of the Guard's son, Bram Visigoth - the siblings set off to conquer the wilderness. What they don't know is that it's already inhabited.

From a shipwreck to dangerous encounters with the Northern clans, nothing goes as planned in this fast-paced comedy of errors teeming with humor, fantasy and plenty of romance. Prepare to fall in love with Jordinia all over again!
