What if fairytales weren't just stories, but modern-day prophecies?

I was your typical teenage girl...until my hand suddenly burst into flames. Stuck in the school's bathroom, I can't seem to control it. Once the inferno stops, I'm left living in fear that any emotion will send my temperature rising and my hand will ignite.

Again.

Staying calm is a challenge when I'm living with a controlling stepmom and stepsisters. Or when Hal Charm, the hot Senior, shows up on my doorstep with secrets of his own.

Just when I feel like no one could possibly understand what I'm going through, my Calculus teacher claims to be my fairy godmother and tells me that I'm the princess prophesied about in the fairytale, Cinderella.

...um, okay

It becomes apparent that I won't get a happily ever after intentions are exposed and people disappear. Now I must master my powers of fire and speed to save those I love before I'm discover by a villain more dangerous than my stepmother.

If you love quirky heroines that don't need to be saved and a fresh take on a fairytale retelling, you'll love Ella: Princess of Fire. It's superheroes meet princesses. Grab your copy today!
