Ruthless marauders leave Mitch Henley and his band of survivors homeless.

When the remote Henley homestead is burned to the ground in a brutal attack, Mitch and his friends bury their dead and move to a deep woods hideaway where survival becomes a struggle against raw nature.

But they are soon faced with another crisis that requires something that can only be found in the ruins of the towns and cities. Taking a single companion, Mitch embarks on a perilous quest into dangers unknown.

The others wait and wonder if he will return, while in his absence an unexpected visitor tracks them to their wilderness refuge.

The Savage Darkness is the fourth book set in the desperate, grid down world of the Darkness After Series, the story of a group of teens and young adults fighting to survive in a world gone dark.
