that will make it any less painful or hurry it along. Everyone moves through their grief process in their own way and timing. However, rest assured that it does get easier over time. This is a book that any pet lover can relate to and find comfort from as the author shares her very personal story of loss. This is a book about a woman and one of her beagles, Piper. Piper was a rescue at the age of one-year old. Her time on earth was short but made a significant impact. As an outlet for her grief, the author began writing about their relationship which soon grew into a full-blown book.
