Travel Hacks: Making the Most of Your Adventure

Now that you've chosen your dream destination, it's time to make the most of your adventure. Here are some travel hacks that will help you navigate the uncharted waters of global exploration:

Connect with Locals

One of the best ways to truly experience a destination is to connect with the locals. Engage in conversations, ask for recommendations, and immerse yourself in their way of life. Not only will you gain a deeper understanding of the culture, but you might also stumble upon hidden gems that are off the beaten path.

Travel Light

When embarking on a global exploration, it's tempting to pack your entire wardrobe. However, traveling light has numerous advantages. Not only will it save you from lugging around heavy suitcases, but it will also give you the freedom to be spontaneous and explore without limitations. Pack light, and let the world be your wardrobe.

Embrace Technology

In this digital age, technology can be your best friend when traveling. Utilize travel apps to find the best local eateries, navigate unfamiliar streets, and communicate with locals. Additionally, research the local customs and learn a few key phrases in the native language. Your efforts will be greatly appreciated and will help you forge meaningful connections.

The World is Waiting: Seize the Adventure

The world is a vast, awe-inspiring place, ready to be explored by those who dare to dream. With an open mind, a thirst for adventure, and a willingness to embrace the unknown, you can unlock the secrets of global exploration. So set sail, chase sunsets, and let the world be your oyster. Your greatest adventure awaits!

After his highly acclaimed first book in the trilogy, the World's my Oyster, Daz is back with Book 2. We left our intrepid explorer shipwrecked in the picturesque bay of Baleeira on the south-west tip of Portugal with a broken boat and a broken heart. A year of introspection has passed since the loss of his beloved Hitrapia and Daz has decided to head back to sea. He no longer has a boat, but he won't let a mere detail like that stop him from following his dream of circumnavigating the globe. His new plan is to attempt the venture as crew aboard other skippers' yachts, but it's not all plain sailing. Daz Tait doesn't suffer fools gladly, and unfortunately some of the boats he finds himself on are skippered by said fools. In sailing, as in life, things rarely go to plan, so strap yourself in and prepare for a rough ride. In this book, Daz traces his steps halfway around the world from the Canary Islands to Australia. Exploring some of the most beautiful and unique places on earth including the Galapagos and the fabled islands of French Polynesia in the South Pacific. There are highs and lows, sharks and volcanoes, but never a dull moment as he's forced to overcome one challenge after another to keep his dream alive.
