These books represent a lifetime of Successes, Failures, and true-life Adventures, and Adversities, I start off why the nickname B>O>B. It is a reference to a distinctive description that one of my superiors gave me in 1993, rightfully deserve. As I discuss that Nickname, I show you how it applies in both volumes. I take you to the Toughest time I faced during this first volume . This first lifetime (yes, it does seem I had more than one.)Life filled with adventures. Let us take a look at when I was 12-years old there was a wooden Drawbridge that was missing something, The New York Fire Department and Their Harbor patrol, a Street with a Park that had a beach on one side and streets on the other side. All these components are in this adventure of why I was traveling at 50plus miles an hour while the Fire department Hook and Ladders Rear driver shouted how fast I was peddling my Schwinn 10-speed Bicycle and How the Harbor Patrol was involved. The same year in the spring and summer, my cousin and I Learned about Model Rocketry, how to track them as they flew lots on hand-on learning about wind and stability of how a rocket flies and sometimes not. I also did the lighting for a local play directed by my cousin as well. As a matter of fact there is a section about him and me and our adventures including Jumping off of a draw bridge for a Brooklyn New York Highway into the inlet from the ocean, and lots

I admit I was a stupid dumpy looking kid until I was 16-years old when it was a case of Fight back or forever be the kid with the “Kick-Me sign taped to your Back.” I stood up for myself, I fought back when a delinquent sliced my back open, when it was all over, I was in a Rehab Facility to find out why I became Violent. The facility could find a reason, so they let me back into school. My first real job (being a paperboy is a Job but not one you can put on your resume.) The first real job was working at the local International Airport as a Baggage handler, the major benefit of working at that type of job is, if you’re an undeveloped in muscles or Just a dumpy kid, that is the place to get hired. I went from “Dumpy to Popeye in 8-Months”. I went from Girls being nice sort-of to me, to walking down a street and having women and girls wrap their arms around my Muscles. The kid across the street from me Liked when I picked his B210 car up and walked around with it like a wheelbarrow with him in it.

A lot of these stories Are about not giving up when the chips are not in your favor. I share my life's accomplishments as well as the blunders

In 1981, the son of a hitman unsuccessfully attempted to murder me for the second time in 4-years, .on the streets of New York City. The car was traveling more than 150 miles an hour. One of the reasons he was unable to kill me that night, happened to be, I just peddled from Maine to New York, 1,100 miles by Bicycle. But he left me with a few parts missing, and a lot of broken parts. He tried again to blow me up in a boating accident, He failed a third time.

Because of him I spent nearly four years in hospitals recuperating. I got lots of righting material , at a very high cost.

February of 1986,

I made a Documentary about NYC with a Pastor from Utah. Who wanted to show his congregation how to survive the streets of New York? For example: "what do you do if you fall off the subway platform, and onto the train tracks. You have less than 5-seconds to get to safety. The safety net is built into all elevated train stations. In that same year there was a grand celebration in New York City that I became a major part of, that Celebration was the Statue of Liberty's Bicentennial Extravaganza.

When President Reagan arrived. The Secret Service escorted me to shake his hand.

You will enjoy the book

I have put puzzles in this book just like I have for my daughter as she grew up.

They consist of Math, Logic, ancient text
